DIRECTIONS

- (1) If there are a number of substantial holders with similar or related relevant interests (eg. a corporation and its related corporations, or the manager and trustee of an equity trust), the names could be included in an annexure to the form. If the relevant interests of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to throughout the form as a specifically named group if the membership of each group, with the names and addresses of members is clearly set out in paragraph 7 of the form.
- (2) See the definition of "associate" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (3) See the definition of "relevant interest" in sections 608 and 671B(7) of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (4) The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless divided into separate classes.
- (5) The total number of votes attached to all the voting shares in the company or voting interests in the scheme (if any) that the person or an associate has a relevant interest in.
- (6) The person's votes divided by the total votes in the body corporate or scheme multiplied by 100.
- (7) Include details of:
 - (a) any relevant agreement or other circumstances by which the relevant interest was acquired. If subsection 671B(4) applies, a copy of any document setting out the terms of any relevant agreement, and a statement by the person giving full and accurate details of any contract, scheme or arrangement, must accompany this form, together with a written statement certifying this contract, scheme or arrangement; and
 - (b) any qualification of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting powers or disposal of the securities to which the relevant interest relates (indicating clearly the particular securities to which the qualification applies).
 See the definition of "relevant agreement" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (8) If the substantial holder is unable to determine the identity of the person (eg. if the relevant interest arises because of an option) write "unknown."
- (9) Details of the consideration must include any and all benefits, moneys and other, that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has, or may, become entitled to receive in relation to that acquisition. Details must be included even if the benefit is conditional on the happening or not of a contingency. Details must be included of any benefit paid on behalf of the substantial holder or its associate in relation to the acquisitions, even if they are not paid directly to the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.

8.4 Access to Information

The Purchaser and the Vendors must cooperate and do all things reasonably necessary to ensure that full information and assistance reasonably requested by a person in connection with that person's rights and obligations under this clause 8 are given to them, including permitting representatives of a person to have reasonable access to, and take extracts from or make copies of the Records.

8.5 Review of Completion Accounts

If neither the Purchaser nor the Vendors dispute the Completion Accounts within 10 Business Days after the date on which they are given, a copy of the written report of the audit under clause 8.3 (Final Objection Date) those accounts will be taken to be the final Completion Accounts. If either the Purchaser or the Vendors disputes the Completion Accounts before the Final Objection Date, the dispute will be determined in accordance with clause 8.

8.6 Dispute Resolution Procedure

- (a) Whether the Purchaser or the Vendors dispute the Completion Accounts (Disputing Party), the Disputing Party must give the other party a notice (Dispute Notice) before the Final Objection Date setting out:
 - (i) reasonable details of each matter in dispute; and
 - (ii) the reasons why each matter is disputed.
- (b) Within 10 Business Days after the Disputing Party giving the other Party's Dispute Notice, the other party must give the Disputing Party a response in writing on the disputed matters (Response).
- (c) If the Vendors and the Purchaser have not resolved the dispute within 10 Business Days after the other party giving the Response to the Disputing Party, either party may promptly submit the dispute to the Independent Accountant to determine the matter or matters in dispute.
- (d) The Independent Accountant must be agreed by the Vendors and the Purchaser. If the Vendors and the Purchaser cannot agree within 12 Business Days of the other party giving the Response to the Disputing Party, then the Independent Accountant will be nominated at the request of either the Vendors or the Purchaser, by the President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Victoria or his nominees.
- (e) This disputed matter will be referred to the Independent Accountant by written submission which must include the Completion Accounts, the Dispute Notice, the Response and an extract of his relevant provisions of his agreement. The Independent Accountant must also be instructed to make his determination no later than 20 Business Days after his appointment (or a longer period agreed by the parties).
- (f) The parties must promptly supply the Independent Accountant with any information, assistance and cooperation requested in writing by the Independent Accountant in connection with his determination. All correspondence between the Independent Accountant and a party must be copied to the other parties.
- (g) The Independent Accountant will act as an arbitrator and its written determination will be final and binding on the parties in the absence of manifest error and

8. Conduct during Exam-Out Period .

384 Company Differentiation

Dwight D. Eisenhower

- (a) revenue derived by the Group or by the Purchaser (excluding the Group) which constitutes Revenue Stream 1, Revenue Stream 2, Revenue Stream 3 and Revenue Stream 6, will be to the account of the Group including for the purpose of calculating the EBIT of the Group during the Buy-Out Period and preparing the EBIT Statement;

(b) in respect of revenue derived by the Purchaser Group (including the Group) which constitutes Revenue Stream 4 and Revenue Stream 5;

(c) if that revenue is derived pursuant to arrangements listed in the Company Agreements Schedule, that revenue will be to the account of the Group including for the purposes of calculating the EBIT of the Group during the Buy-Out Period and preparing the EBIT Statement; and

(d) if that revenue is derived pursuant to any arrangements other than those listed in the Company Agreements Schedule, that revenue will be to the account of the Purchaser.

8.2 Implementatio

- (a) The Purchaser intends, during the First One Period, to take such steps as are necessary to integrate the Business, in whole or in part, with the Purchaser's existing business.

(b) The Purchaser undertakes and agrees that the Group and the Business will until the earlier of the L-Loan being repaid in full and 31 December 2013:

 - (i) be managed in the same manner as any other business or division of the Purchaser;
 - (ii) have funding made available to it on the same basis as any other business or division of the Purchaser;
 - (iii) have made available to it in 2009 to the extent reasonably practicable the funding forecast to be required by it in the 2009 Forecast and in each subsequent year the funding forecast to be required by it in the approved forecasts or contains a plan for the Group (as the case may be) for that year; and

- (iv) be otherwise treated no less favourably than the Purchaser's existing key division.
- (c) The parties agree that any additional funding provided to the Group by the Purchaser will be:
- (i) at the discretion of the Board, subject to clause 3.2(b); and
 - (ii) only advanced in US dollars and with the prior written approval of the Vendor;
- (d) Until the earlier of 31 December 2013 and its Loan being repaid in full, the Purchaser must act in good faith, and must continue to operate the Group and the Business generally in accordance with its known or reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Group and the Business to generate EBIT, including whilst bankrolled:
- (i) delaying entry into any contracts;
 - (ii) deferring collection of revenue;
 - (iii) bringing forward due appearance of receivables;
 - (iv) transferring existing commercial opportunities of the Group and the Businesses to other entities or businesses within the Purchaser's Group;
 - (v) allowing relevant contracts and other commercial arrangements to be breached by the Purchaser Group (including a member of the Group);
 - (vi) failing to use its reasonable endeavours to make resources available to the Group and the Business at least at a similar level to those available to the Group and the Business prior to Completion; or
 - (vii) directing all sources of revenue which constitute Revenue Stream 1, Revenue Stream 2, Revenue Stream 3 and Revenue Stream 4, and all contracts (including purchase orders) which relate directly to the Business and its capabilities at the relevant time, to the Group and the Business, except where it is reasonable for it not to do so.
- (e) The Purchaser must not sell, or offer for sale, any member of the Group, or the Business and assets of any member of the Group substantially used to run the Business, within the Elim Out Period without the prior written consent of the Vendor, unless such consent is to be reasonably withheld.
- (f) It is agreed that revenue such as tributed to the Group because the Purchaser does not comply with clause 3.2(g) will be deducted to have been for the benefit of the Group during the relevant year and will be included in the EBIT of the Group for that year.
- (g) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:
- (i) if the Purchaser restructures the Group so that the Business is operated, in whole or in part, by one or more entities in the Purchaser Group (other than the Group) or so that other businesses are merged into the Group, for the purposes of determining EBIT the Purchaser must procure an assessment of Revenue Streams 1 to 6 on the basis that the Business was being operated as a stand-alone enterprise; and
 - (ii) the development and expansion of the Group and the Business will be taken into consideration when preparing an assessment of the revenue of the Business for the purposes of this clause 3.

- (b) Where the Business, in whole or in part, has been transferred from the Group to other members of the Fairfield Group, for the purposes of this clause 9.2, a reference to the Group must also be read as a reference to those entities that, during the relevant period, operate same or similar parts of the Business.
- (i) Until the earlier of 31 December 2013 and the Loan being repaid in full, the Purchaser must procure that a representative of each of the Vendors remains on the Board of the Company, and for those purposes will agree that Mr Elizanay and Hoi Frenz will be the initial representative directors of the Vendors.

9. Release of Guarantees and Assumption of Loan

9.1 Guarantees

The Purchaser:

- (a) must obtain the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from each of the Guarantees as and right after from Completion; and
- (b) if it fails to fulfil its obligation under clause 9.2(e) and notwithstanding that failure the Vendors have elected to proceed with Completion:
 - (i) must procure the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from each of the Guarantees as soon as possible; and
 - (ii) indemnifies each Vendor and its Associates from and against any Claim or Liability arising out of the Guarantees that may be suffered or incurred by that Vendor or any of its Associates.

9.2 Other guarantees

The Purchaser:

- (a) must, at and with effect from Completion, obtain the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from any other guarantee or security (including any Bank Debt Security) given before Completion by that Vendor or its Associates in relation to the obligations of the Group; and
- (b) if it fails to fulfil its obligations under clause 9.2(e) and notwithstanding that failure the Vendors have elected to proceed with Completion:
 - (i) must procure the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from each of those other guarantees and securities (including any Bank Debt Security), including by repaying or prepaying the repayments by the Group of all of the Bank Debt as soon as possible; and
 - (ii) indemnifies each Vendor and its Associates from and against any Claim or Liability arising out of any guarantees or securities referred to in clause 9.2(i) that may be suffered or incurred by that Vendor or any of its Associates.

9.3 Company loan

- Subject to clause 10, the Purchaser will ensure that the Company repays the Loan in accordance with the terms of the Loan Agreement, and will provide the Company with such financial assistance as is necessary for that purpose.

9.4 Benefit held for Associates

The Vendors hold the rights under clauses 9.1 and 9.2 expressed to be for their Associates as agent of and trustee for their Associates, and their Associates must be treated to this extent as parties to this Agreement.

10. Vendor Warranties10.1 Vendor Warranties

(a) The Vendor Warranties are referred to the Purchaser, as an Indemnification by the Purchaser to extend to the Vendors, subject to the limitations in this agreement and except as expressly stated, each of the Vendor Warranties is true and accurate in all material respects.

(b) Each Vendor Warranty is given as at the date of this agreement and immediately prior to the Effective Date (unless otherwise indicated in Schedule 10).

(c) The Vendors acknowledge and agree that:

- (i) each of the Vendor Warranties is to be treated as a separate warranty and that interpretation of any statement made is not restricted by reference to or inference from any other statement;
- (ii) with the exception of the Disclosure Material, no other document or communication that qualifies any of the Vendor Warranties and;
- (iii) the Vendor Warranties are not extinguished or affected by any investigation made by or on behalf of the Purchaser into the Company and the Business before the date of this agreement, unless the Claim relates to a matter which is finally Dislosed in the Disclosure Material or to which clauses 10.6(a)(v) or 10.8(e)(x) apply.

10.2 Some Vendors' Warranties Limited to Knowledge

Where Vendor Warranty is qualified by reference to the awareness or knowledge of the Vendors, the Purchaser agrees that the awareness or knowledge of the Vendors is limited to any information that is known by one or more of:

No Person

Had Person

[the Relevant Persons], as at the date of this agreement and in respect of those Vendor Warranties repeated at the Effective Date (given the fact of circumstances known by the Relevant Persons at that time), after the Relevant Persons have made reasonable inquiries in relation to the matter, including as appropriate by consulting with the legal, financial and other professional advisors of the Vendors regarding the particular financial matters, Chris O'Neil regarding Noddy and Breckyn Blackworth regarding distribution matters.

10.3 Gross UpSubject to clause 10.3(b) if:

- (i) the Vendors are required by law to make any deduction or withholding from any sum paid to the Purchaser by the Vendors in relation to a Claim; or
- (ii) the Purchaser is required by law to make any payment on account of tax or any other matter (or an obligation to pay any amount accrued or receivable by it in relation to a payment by the Vendors in respect of payment for a Claim,

(g) then the sum so payable by the Vendors will be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of such deduction, withholding or payment, the Purchaser receives and retains (free of any liability in respect of such deduction, withholding or payment) a sum equal to the sum that the Purchaser would have received and so retained had no such deduction, withholding or payment been required. In determining the adjustment and amount of an obligation to make any deduction, withholding or payment referred to in clause 10.3(e) (Other Part), the following procedures will be adopted:

- (i) the Purchaser must deduct from any Obligation the amount of any Tax benefit derived by it as a result of the occurrence giving rise to the Claim;
- (ii) the Purchaser will notify the Vendors of the existence and amount of an Obligation and provide the Vendors with access to such of its Records as the Vendors may reasonably require to make an informed assessment of the existence and/or amount of the Obligation;
- (iii) the Vendor may obtain written advice from its accountants or lawyers as to the existence and amount of the Obligation; and
- (iv) the Purchaser will provide all reasonably necessary assistance to the Vendors and its accountants or lawyers in preparing such advice.

10.4 Time limits and other requirements for Claims

(a) Despite any notice, publication of this agreement or the Tax Indemnity Deed and to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Purchaser must not be entitled to, and must, procure that the Company does not and agrees that the Company is not entitled to, make a Claim, and the Vendors are not liable to make any payment for any breach of the Vendor Warranties or any other provision of this Agreement or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, including in respect of any indemnity (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed), unless the Purchaser notifies the Vendors of the Claim:

- (i) in the case of a Tax Warranty Claim or under this Tax Indemnity Deed, before the expiration of 5 years after the Completion Date; or
- (ii) in the case of any other Claim, before the expiration of 90 days after the end of the Expiry Period,

except to the extent that:

- (iii) the Claim relates to a matter involving an act of fraud, dishonesty or wilful misconduct on the part of a Vendor, in which case no time limit applies;
- (iv) the Claim is not a Tax Warranty Claim or a claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed and relates to a matter involving the Shares, so far as the Claim is in respect of a breach of Vendor Warranty 6 in Schedule 5, in which case no time limit applies.
- (v) If the Purchaser gives the Vendors notice of a Claim, the notice to the Vendors must give full details of the nature of the Claim (together with copies of all relevant Records), the nature of the breach and an estimate of the actual claimed and details of how it has been calculated, to the extent that those details are available to the Purchaser or a member of the Purchaser Group (including a member of the Group).
- (c) A Claim by the Purchaser (or the Company under the Tax Indemnity Deed) will be taken to be waived or withdrawn and will be barred and unenforceable if within 6 months after the Vendors receive that notice, the Claim is not:-
 - (i) admitted or ratified by the Vendors;

- (iii) irrevocably withdrawn by the Purchaser or Company (as the case may be);
(iv) settled between the Vendor(s) and the Purchaser or Company (as the case may be);
or
(v) referred to a court of competent jurisdiction by the Purchaser or Company (as the case may be) property, testing and validity, setting legal proceedings against the Vendor(s) in relation to the Contract.

10.5 Small Claims

- (a) The Vendors are not liable to make any payment in respect of a Resolved Claim (whether by way of damages or otherwise) for any breach of the Vendor Warranties or any provision of this Agreement or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, including in respect of any indemnity (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed) unless:

 - (i) If that Resolved Claim relates to a Tax Warranty or is made under the Tax Indemnity Deed, the amount of that Resolved Claim, or series of Resolved Claims that have arisen from a Tax Warranty Claim or Claims under the Tax Indemnity Deed, is more than ^{10%}
 - (ii) If that Resolved Claim does not relate to a Tax Warranty and is not made under the Tax Indemnity Deed, the amount of that Resolved Claim, or series of Resolved Claims that have arisen other than from a Tax Warranty Claim or Claims under the Tax Indemnity Deed, is more than ^{10%}

(b) The parties acknowledge and agree that, subject to the time limitations and other restrictions in this clause 10:

 - (i) the Purchaser, and the Company (in respect of a Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed), are entitled to aggregate individual Resolved Claims of ^{more} not less than the monetary thresholds referred to in clause 10.5(b);
 - (ii) the Purchaser, and the Company (in respect of a Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed), are not entitled to make a Claim for any breach of the Vendor Warranties or any provision of this Agreement or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, or to make a Claim in respect of any Indemnity (including by this Company under the Tax Indemnity Deed) unless a total of all Resolved Claim amounts, or the total of all individual Resolved Claims that are aggregated under clause 10.5(b)(i) exceed the monetary thresholds referred to in clause 10.5(b); and
 - (iii) if the Purchaser, or the Company (under the Tax Indemnity Deed), makes a Resolved Claim which, entirely, or Resolved Claims the aggregate amount of which exceed the monetary thresholds referred to in clause 10.5(b), the Purchaser or the Company (as the case may be) is entitled to recover [100% of the amount of the Resolved Claim or aggregate Resolved Claim(s), as the case may be, and, in respect of the Resolved Claim or aggregate Resolved Claim(s), referred to in clauses 10.5(b)(i) and (ii)]

10.12 Claims that Impact on EBIT

To the extent that there is a breach of Vendor Warranty, and as a consequence of that breach of Vendor Warranty, Revenue is less than would have been the case if the breach had not occurred, then the Purchaser must not make a claim against the Vendor for breach of Vendor Warranty and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that any Liability arising from the breach has been taken into account due to the reduction in Revenue used for the purpose of determining EBIT.

10.13 Credit Payment of a Claim

- (i) The Vendors may elect to make a Credit Payment under this clause 10 (including in relation to a Received Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed) by bank cheque, telegraphic transfer to an account or accounts nominated by the Purchaser or otherwise in cleared funds, in which case the procedure in clause 10.1 will not apply;
- (ii) If the Vendors elect to make a Credit Payment in accordance with paragraph 10.13(a),
 - (A) they must give notice to the Purchaser in writing within 10 Business Days after this date the Claim becomes a Received Claim stating:
 - (A) that they wish to make the resultant Credit Payment in accordance with clause 10.13(b); and
 - (B) the manner (whether by bank cheque, telegraphic transfer or otherwise in cleared funds) in which they propose to make the resultant Credit Payment;
 - (B) such election must be in respect of the full amount of the resultant Credit Payment.
- (iii) Following receipt of a notice from the Vendors given in accordance with sub-paragraph 10.13(b)(i), the Purchaser must notify the Vendors of the details of its account(s) accounts to which the resultant Credit Payment must be made, by not less than 2 Business Days before the date date for payment;
- (iv) If the Vendors give the Purchaser a notice pursuant to sub-paragraph 10.13(b) but do not make the resultant Credit Payment by the due date for payment, the Purchaser may, disregard the notice and apply the procedure set out in clause 10.11 to recover the outstanding amount of the Credit Payment and the Purchaser retains the right to bring suit within 2 and 6 months of the Credit Payment (subject otherwise to clause 10.13(g)(i)) agreement;
- (v) For the avoidance of doubt, a notice given by the Vendors pursuant to sub-paragraph 10.13(g)(i) will be binding on the Vendors jointly and severally.

10.14 Guaranteed Shares

Any payment to be made to the Purchaser or a member of the Plaintiff's Group under this clause will (notwithstanding in relation to a Received Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deal) shall not reduce the number of shares that the Vendors receive pursuant to this agreement in respect of a number less than the number of Guaranteed Shares.

10.15 Survival

The provisions of this clause 10 remain in full force and effect after Completion.

10.16 Claim

For the purposes of this clause 10, a Claim includes a Claim for breach of any provision of this agreement or otherwise in connection with this agreement (including in respect of any indemnity (including the Tax Indemnity Deal)).

11. Purchaser Warranties

- (a) The Purchaser warrants and represents to the Vendors, as an inducement to the Vendors to enter into this agreement that, subject to the limitations in this agreement and except as expressly stated, that each of the Purchaser Warranties is true and accurate in all material respects.
- (b) Each Purchaser Warranty is given as at the date of this agreement and immediately prior to Completion (unless otherwise indicated in Schedule 1).
- (c) Each of the Purchaser Warranties is to be treated as a separate warranty and the interpretation of any statement made is not restricted by reference to or inference from any other statement.
- (d) This Vendor must not make a Claim, and the Purchaser is not liable to make any payment (whether by way of damages or under any liability or otherwise) for any Claim or Liability, to the extent that:
 - (i) the matter, information or circumstances giving rise to, or the subject of, the breach or Claim is Fully Disclosed in this agreement or is written to the Underwriter on or before the date of this agreement; or
 - (ii) at the date of this agreement, the matter, information or circumstance is disclosed in Publicly Available Information.

12. General Indemnity

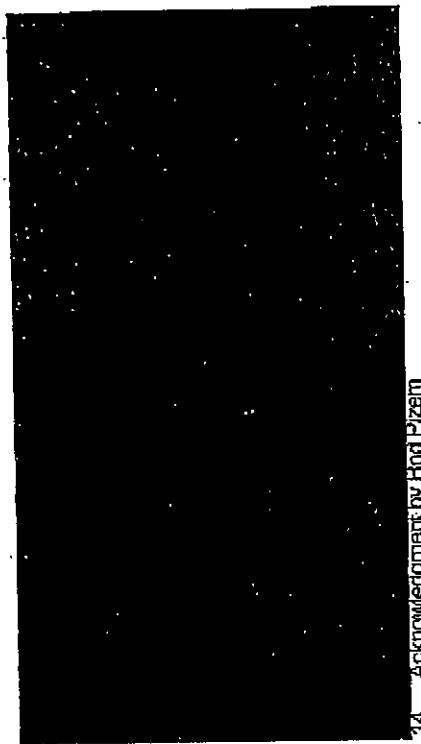

The Vendors indemnify the Purchaser:

- (a) from all Liabilities (excluding indirect or consequential loss) which the Purchaser actually suffers or incurs by reason of:
 - (i) any of its Vendor Warranties being untrue, inaccurate or breached in any material respect;
 - (ii) any failure by a Vendor to fulfil its material obligations under this agreement in any material respect; and
 - (iii) any breach of a material warranty given with respect to a third party, where that breach occurred prior to Completion.

- (e) Recruiting a Person through a recruitment agency (except if the agency targets employees of the Company) or in a respect to a prospective, web-based seller, publisher or employment advertisement;

15.7 Acknowledgments

Each Vendor acknowledges that:

- (a) all the prohibitions and restrictions in this clause 15 are reasonable in the circumstances and necessary to protect the goodwill of the Purchaser;
- (b) damages are not an adequate remedy if a Prohibited Person breaches this clause 15; and
- (c) the Purchaser may apply for injunctive relief if:
 - (i) a Prohibited Person breaches or threatens to breach this clause 15; or
 - (ii) it believes a Prohibited Person is likely to breach this clause 15.

16. Confidentiality and publicity

16.1 Confidentiality

- The parties agree to keep the terms of this agreement confidential on the basis that it constitutes Confidential Information for the purpose of the Confidentiality Agreement, except that the Purchaser may disclose such information regarding this agreement as is necessary for the purpose of obtaining any approvals from members of the Purchaser in general meetings, making submissions to, or engaging in discussions with, ASX, ASIC or any other regulator, or otherwise to the extent necessary to enable the Purchaser to complete the transactions contemplated by this agreement.

- (b) Upon Completion the Purchaser is released from clauses 4, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13 and 15 of the Confidentiality Agreement in respect of Confidential Information relating solely to the Company, but not the terms of this agreement.

16.2 Confidential Information - after Completion

- From Completion, subject to Boden, an Associate of NSW Peas being an employee of the Purchaser, each Vendor will retain in hand, by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement (except that the parties agree that clause 1.1(b) of the Confidentiality Agreement is deleted and in any event, unless and until such time that any related body corporate of it and its and their respective officers, agents and employees (and not, after Completion without the prior written consent of this Purchaser, use or disclose any Confidential Information unless required to do so by law or the Listing Rules of ASX).

16.3 This agreement paramount

- Except as otherwise provided for this agreement, both before and after Completion, its obligations set out in the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue to apply to the parties but, unless an express term of this agreement is inconsistent with a term of the Confidentiality Agreement, the express term of this agreement shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

17. Termination

17.1 Default

If the Vendors or the Purchaser (Defaulting Party) breached any provision of this agreement and fail to rectify that breach within 14 days of being given written notice of the requirement to do so, or become subject to an Insolvency Event, the non-defaulting Party (Non-Defaulding Party) may at any time prior to Completion (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies under this agreement or at law), immediately terminate this agreement by giving notice in writing to the Defaulting Party.

17.2 After termination

On termination of this agreement for any reason, each party must stop, and must cause its permitted disclosures to stop, using confidential information of another party (including any Records or copies of Records) and, at the other party's option:

- (a) return to the other party;
- (b) destroy and certify in writing to the other party the destruction of;
- (c) destroy and furnish a representative of the other party to witness the destruction of;
- (d) all confidential information in its possession or control.

17.3 Survival

Clause 17 continues to apply after termination of this agreement.

17.4 Accrued rights

Termination of this agreement does not affect any accrued rights or remedies of a party.

18. GST

18.1 Interpretation

In this clause 18, a word or expression defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) has the meaning given to it in that Act.

18.2 GST Gross Up

If a party makes a supply under or in connection with this agreement in respect of which GST is payable, the consideration for the supply but for the application of that clause 18.2 (GST exclusive consideration) is increased by an amount equal to the GST exclusive consideration multiplied by the rate of GST prevailing at the time the supply is made.

18.3 Reimbursements

If a party must reimburse or indemnify another party for a loss, cost or expense, the amount to be reimbursed or indemnified is first reduced by any input tax credit the other party is entitled to for the loss, cost or expense, and then increased in accordance with clause 18.2.

18.4 Tax invoices

A party need not make a payment for a taxable supply made under or in connection with this agreement until it receives a tax invoice for the supply to which the payment relates.

19. Notices and other communications

19.1 Service of notices

A notice, demand, claim, approval or communication under this agreement (Notice) must be:

- (a) in writing, in English and signed by a person duly authorized by the sender; and
- (b) hand delivered or sent by prepaid post or facsimile to the recipient's address for Notices specified in the Details, as varied by any Notice given by the recipient to the sender.

19.2 Effective on receipt

A Notice given in accordance with clause 19.1 takes effect when taken to be received (or at a later time specified in it), and is taken to be received:

- (a) if hand delivered, on delivery;
- (b) if sent by prepaid post, two Business Days after the date of posting (or seven Business Days after the date of posting if posted to or from a place outside Hong Kong);
- (c) if sent by facsimile, when the sender's facsimile system generates a message confirming successful transmission of the entire Notice (unless, within eight Business Hours after the transmission, the recipient informs the sender that it has not received the entire Notice); but if the delivery, receipt or transmission is not on a Business Day or is after 5.00pm on a Business Day, the Notice is taken to be received at 9.00am on the next Business Day.

20. Assignment

20.1 Assignment in general

A party may only assign this agreement or a right under this agreement with the prior written consent of each other party.

21. Miscellaneous

21.1 Alterations

This agreement may be altered only in writing signed by each party.

21.2 Approvals and consents

Except where this Agreement expressly states otherwise, a party may, in its discretion, give conditionally or unconditionally or withhold any approval or consent under this Agreement.

21.3 Costs

Each party must pay its own costs of negotiation, preparing and concluding this Agreement.

21.4 Stamp duty

Any stamp duty, duties or other taxes of a similar nature (including fines, penalties and interest) in connection with this Agreement or any transaction contemplated by this Agreement, must be paid by the Purchaser.

21.5 Survival

- (a) Any indemnity or any obligation of confidence under this Agreement is independent and survives termination of this Agreement.

For personal use only

[10 May 2009]

- (f) Any other term by its nature intended to survive termination of this agreement survives termination of this agreement.
- (g) For the avoidance of doubt, clauses 4.2, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 survive completion of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

24.8 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts. All executed counterparts constitute one document.

24.7 No merger.

The rights and obligations of two parties under this Agreement do not merge on completion of any transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

24.8 Entire agreement

This Agreement, read in conjunction with the Underwriting Agreement, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in connection with its subject matter and supersedes all previous agreements or understandings between the parties in connection with its subject matter.

24.9 Further action

Each party must do, at its own expense, everything reasonably necessary (including executing documents) to give full effect to this Agreement and any transactions contemplated by it.

24.10 Severability

A term or part of a term of this Agreement that is illegal or unenforceable may be severed from this Agreement and the remaining terms or parts of the term or this Agreement continue in force.

24.11 Waiver

A party does not waive a right, power or remedy if it fails to exercise or delays in exercising the right, power or remedy. A single or partial exercise of a right, power or remedy does not prevent another or further exercise of that or another right, power or remedy. A waiver of a right, power or remedy must be in writing and signed by the party giving the waiver.

24.12 Relationship

Except where this Agreement expressly states otherwise, it does not create a relationship of employment, trust, agency or partnership between the parties.

24.13 Governing law and jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Victoria, Australia, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law of any jurisdiction. Both Party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of courts of Victoria, Australia, waives any objections to the jurisdiction of these courts and irrevocably agrees that a judgment or order of a court of Victoria in connection with this Agreement is conclusive and binding on it and may be enforced against it in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

DIRECTIONS

- (1) If there are a number of substantial holders with similar or related relevant interests (eg. a corporation and its related corporations, or the manager and trustee of an equity trust), the names could be included in an annexure to the form. If the relevant interests of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to throughout the form as a specifically named group if the membership of each group, with the names and addresses of members is clearly set out in paragraph 6 of the form.
- (2) See the definition of "associate" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (3) See the definition of "relevant interest" in sections 608 and 671B(7) of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (4) The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless divided into separate classes.
- (5) The person's votes divided by the total votes in the body corporate or scheme multiplied by 100.
- (6) Include details of:
 - (a) any relevant agreement or other circumstances because of which the change in relevant interest occurred. If subsection 671B(4) applies, a copy of any document setting out the terms of any relevant agreement, and a statement by the person giving full and accurate details of any contract, scheme or arrangement, must accompany this form, together with a written statement certifying this contract, scheme or arrangement; and
 - (b) any qualification of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting powers or disposal of the securities to which the relevant interest relates (indicating clearly the particular securities to which the qualification applies).
- (7) See the definition of "relevant agreement" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (8) Details of the consideration must include any and all benefits, money and other, that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has, or may become entitled to receive in relation to that acquisition. Details must be included even if the benefit is conditional on the happening or not of a contingency. Details must be included on any benefit paid on behalf of the substantial holder or its associate in relation to the acquisitions, even if they are not paid directly to the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.
- (9) If the substantial holder is unable to determine the identity of the person (eg. if the relevant interest arises because of an option) write "unknown".
- (9) Give details, if appropriate, of the present association and any change in that association since the last substantial holding notice.

Each Vendor acknowledges that, as and from Completion, neither Mr Nir Plymoy nor Mr Hod Plizer, nor any alternative director appointed by either of them, will be entitled to receive any fees in respect of their position as an officer of the Company.

5.5 Obligations of the Purchaser

The Purchaser must:

- (a) at Completion provide the Initial Consideration to the Vendors under clause 4.1; and
- (b) deliver to the Vendors executed copies of the [REDACTED]
- (ii) Deed of Deed;
- (iii) Executive Services Agreement for Mr Hod Plizer in the form agreed by the parties to [REDACTED]
- (iv) Executive Services Agreement for Nir Plymoy in the form agreed by the parties to it;
- (v) Director's Deed of Indemnity for Nir Plymoy and Hod Plizer each in the form agreed by the parties to it;
- (vi) Loan Agreement; and
- (vii) Service Agreement;
- (c) at or before Completion, deliver to the Vendors any documents or waivers required under clause 2;
- (d) on the date referred to in paragraph 2.1(i) of the Terms of Issue, pay to each Vendor the Cash Consideration (if any) calculated in accordance with paragraph 4.2(e) of this agreement;
- (e) on the date referred to in paragraph 2.1(b) of the Terms of Issue, pay to each Vendor the Cash Consideration (if any) calculated in accordance with paragraph 4.2(e) of this agreement;
- (f) at Completion, deliver to the Vendors evidence satisfactory to the Vendors of the release of the Vendors and any Associates of the Vendors from the Bank Debt Security, the Guarantees and any other guarantees or security given before Completion by the Vendors or any of their Associates in relation to the obligations of the Group; and
- (g) as soon as practicable after Completion, convene a meeting of the Board at which:
 - (i) Nir Plymoy will be appointed as a director of the Purchaser; and
 - (ii) a person nominated by the Underwriter will be appointed as a director of the Purchaser in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement (but, for the avoidance of doubt, the Underwriter will only be entitled to nominate one person to be appointed as a director of the Purchaser and the Purchaser will only appoint one nominee of the Underwriter to its Board).

in each case, subject to the relevant appointments providing the Purchaser with a signed consent to not be a director.

5.6 Simultaneous actions at Completion

In respect of Completion:

- (a) the obligations of the parties under this Agreement are interdependent;
- (b) all actions required to be performed will be taken to have occurred simultaneously on the Completion Date; and
- (c) the Purchaser and the Vendees intend and complete the purchase of any Shares unless the purchase of all the Shares is completed simultaneously;

5.7 Interdependence

This Agreement and the Underwriting Agreement are interdependent. A failure to perform and complete the Underwriting Agreement may be treated by the Vendee as a default and entitle the Vendee to immediately terminate this agreement, in which case clause 17 applies.

5.8 Conduct until the Shares are Registered

After Completion, and until the Shares are registered in the name of the Purchaser, the Vendees must:

- (a) convene and attend at general meetings of the Company; and
- (b) vote at general meetings and take all other action in the capacity of the registered holder of the Shares, as the Purchaser may lawfully require from time to time by notice in writing to the Vendee.

5.9 Records

The Vendees may retain after Completion copies of any records necessary for them to comply with any applicable law (including Tax law) and to prepare Tax or other returns required of them by law, and post Completion the Purchaser agrees to provide the Vendee with a copy of any original records they reasonably require access to in order to enable them to comply with any applicable law (including Tax law).

6. Completion Accounts

6.1 Completion Accounts

The Vendee must, as soon as practicable, and in any event no later than 20 Business Days, after the Completion Date prepare and give the Purchaser and Auditors the Completion Accounts.

6.2 Basis of preparation

The Completion Accounts must be prepared in Australian GAAP format.

6.3 Instructions to Auditors

As soon as practicable after the Completion Accounts are prepared, but in any event no later than 10 Business Days after the Completion Accounts have been provided to the Purchaser by the Vendee, the Purchaser must instruct auditors (chosen by the Purchaser in its absolute discretion) to:

- (i) audit the Completion Accounts in accordance with Australian GAAP;

- (b) complete the audit as soon as practicable, but in any event no later than 35 Business Days after the Purchaser is given the Completion Accounts; and

- (c) give the Vendors and the Purchaser a written report of the audit.

6.4 Access to Information

The Purchaser and the Vendors must cooperate and do all things reasonably necessary to ensure that all information and assistance reasonably requested by a person in connection with that Person's rights and obligations under this clause 6 are given to that person, including permitting representatives of a person to have reasonable access to, and make extracts from or make copies of the Records.

6.5 Review of Completion Accounts

If neither the Purchaser nor the Vendors dispute the Completion Accounts within 10 Business Days after the date on which they are given a copy of the written report of the audit under clause 6.3 (Initial Objection Date) those accounts will be taken to be the Final Completion Accounts. If either the Purchaser or the Vendors disputes the Completion Accounts before the Final Objection Date, the dispute will be determined in accordance with clause 6.

6.6 Dispute Resolution Procedure

- (a) If either the Purchaser or the Vendors disputes the Completion Accounts (Disputing Party), the Disputing Party must give the other party a notice (Dispute Notice) before the Final Objection Date setting out:
 - (i) reasonable details of each matter in dispute; and
 - (ii) the reasons why each matter is disputed.
- (b) Within 10 Business Days after the Disputing Party giving the other Party a Dispute Notice, the other party must give the Disputing Party a response in writing on the disputed matters (Response).
- (c) If the Vendors and the Purchaser have not resolved the dispute within 10 Business Days after the other party giving the Response to the Disputing Party, either party may promptly refer the dispute to the Independent Accountant for determine its nature or merits in dispute.
- (d) The Independent Accountant must be agreed by the Vendors and the Purchaser. If the Vendors and the Purchaser cannot agree within 12 Business Days of the other party giving the Response to the Disputing Party then the Independent Accountant will be nominated, at the request of either the Vendors or the Purchaser, by the President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Victoria or his nominees.
- (e) The disputed matters must be referred to the Independent Accountant by written submission which must include the Completion Accounts, the Dispute Notice, the Response and an extract of the relevant provisions of this agreement. The Independent Accountant must also be instructed to furnish his determination no later than 20 Business Days after his appointment (or earlier period agreed by the parties).
- (f) The parties must promptly supply the Independent Accountant with any information, assistance and documentation requested in writing by the Independent Accountant in connection with its determination. All correspondence between the Independent Accountant and a party must be copied to the other party.
- (g) The Independent Accountant must act as an arbiter and set aside its written determination if it is found to be manifestly erroneous and the parties in the absence of manifest error and the Occupier's Accounts will be deemed to be attended to accordingly and will be taken to comprise the Final Completion Accounts.

6.7 Grants

The costs of:

- (a) Auditors in reviewing the Completion Accounts; and
- (b) the Independent Accountant (if instructed), will be borne by the Purchaser.

7. Vendor's obligations prior to Completion

7.1 Continuity of Business

Until Completion, the Group must carry on the Business in the ordinary course.

7.2 Access to Business and Records

The Vendors must allow the Purchaser, its employees, agents and representatives reasonable access to the Properties and the Records at all reasonable times before Completion to enable the Purchaser, as is reasonably necessary, to become familiar with the Business and the Affairs of the Company.

7.3 Purchaser's obligations

The Purchaser must ensure that any access under clause 7.2 is exercised and conducted in a manner to avoid unnecessary disruption to the conduct of the Business and the activities and operations of the Group and its employees.

7.4 Right to copy and consult

For the purposes of clause 7.2, the Purchaser may:

- (a) make copies of material examined; and
- (b) with the prior consent of the Vendors (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld), consult with employees of the Company.

7.5 Termination discussions

Until the end of the Second Date, the Vendors must not solicit or respond to any acquisition or proposals by any person, other than the Purchaser, concerning the acquisition of the Shares or the assets of the Company.

7.6 Material changes

Until Completion, the Vendors must ensure that the Purchaser is informed of, and consulted about, any matter which materially adversely affects the Business.

8. Conduct during Earth-Out Period

6.1 Company Agreements Schedule

During the First-World Period

- (a) revenue derived by the Group or by the Purchaser (excluding the Group) which constitutes Revenue Stream 1, Revenue Stream 2, Revenue Stream 3 and Revenue Stream 6, will be to the account of the Group including for the purpose of calculating the EBIT of the Group during the Half-Year Period and preparing the EBIT Statement;

(b) in respect of Revenue derived by the Financial Group (including the Group) which constitutes Revenue Stream 4 and Revenue Stream 5:

 - (i) if that revenue is derived pursuant to arrangements listed in the Company Agreement Schedule, that revenue will be to the account of the Group including for the purposes of calculating the EBIT of the Group during the Half-Year Period and preparing the EBIT Statement; and
 - (ii) if that revenue is derived pursuant to any arrangements other than those listed in the Company Agreement Schedule, that revenue will be to the account of the

3.2 Interpretation

- This Purchaser Intends, during the Turn-Out Period, to take such steps as are necessary to integrate the Business, in whole or in part, with the Purchaser's existing business.

The Purchaser undertakes and agrees that the Group and the Businesses will until the earlier of the Loan being repaid in full and 31 December 2013:

 - (i) have no target to its same nature as any other business or division of this Purchaser;
 - (ii) have funding made available to it on the same basis as any other business or division of the Purchaser;
 - (iii) have made available to it in 2009 to the extent reasonably practicable the funding forecast to be required by it in the 2009 Forecast and in each subsequent year the funding forecast to be required by it in the improved forecasts or business plans for

- (iv) be otherwise treated no less favorably than the Purchaser's existing toy division.
- (c) The parties agree that any additional funding provided to the Group by the Purchaser will be:
 - (i) at the discretion of the Board, subject to clause 8.2(b); and
 - (ii) only advanced in US dollars and with the prior written approval of the Vendors.
- (d) Until the earlier of 31 December 2013 and the Loan being repaid in full, the Purchaser must act in good faith, and must continue to operate the Group and the Business generally in accordance with the manner in which it had previously been operated and must not take any action, or fail to take any action, that is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Group and the Business to generate EBIT, including without limitation:
 - (i) delaying carry into any contract;
 - (ii) deferring collection of receivables;
 - (iii) bringing forward the incurrence of expenses;
 - (iv) terminating existing commercial opportunities of the Group and the Business in other entities or businesses within the Franchise Group;
 - (v) allowing relevant contracts and other commercial arrangements to be breached by the Purchaser Group (including a member of the Group);
 - (vi) failing to use its reasonable endeavours to make resources available to the Group and the Business at least at a similar level to those available to the Group and the Business prior to Completion; or
 - (vii) not directing all business of revenue which constitute Revenue Streams 1, Revenue Stream 2, Revenue Stream 3 and Revenue Stream 6 and all contracts (including purchase orders) which relate directly to the Business and its capabilities at the relevant time, to the Group and the Business, except where it is reasonable for it not to do so.
- (e) The Purchaser must not sell, or offer for sale, any member of the Group, or the business and assets of any member of the Group substantially used to run the Business, within the Bars-Out Period without the prior written consent of the Vendors, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.
- (f) It is agreed that revenue not attributed to the Group because the Purchaser does not comply with clause 8.2(d) will be deemed to have been for the benefit of the Group during the relevant year and will be included in the EBIT of the Group for that year.
- (g) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:
 - (i) if the Purchaser restuctures the Group so that the Business is operated, in whole or in part, by one or more entities in the Franchise Group (other than the Group) or so that other businesses are merged into the Group, for the purposes of determining EBIT the Purchaser must prepare an assessment of Revenue Streams 1 to 6 on the basis that the Business was being operated as a stand-alone enterprise; and
 - (ii) the development and expansion of the Group and the Business will be taken into consideration when preparing an assessment of the revenue of the Business for the purposes of this clause 8.

- (h) Where the Business, in whole or in part, has been transferred from the Group to other members of the Purchaser Group, for the purposes of this clause 8.2, reference to the Group must also be read as a reference to those entities that, during the relevant period, operate some or all of the Business.
- (i) Until the earlier of 31 December 2013 and the Loan being repaid in full, the Purchaser must procure that a representative of each of the Vendors remains on the Board of the Company, and for these purposes it is agreed that Mr. Kenner and Head Green will be the initial representative directors of the Vendors.

8. Release of Guarantees and Assumption of Loan

8.1 Guarantees

The Purchaser:

- (a) must obtain the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from each of the Guarantees at and with effect from Completion; and
- (b) if it fails to fulfil its obligations under clause 7.1(e), and notwithstanding that a Subsequent Vendor has elected to proceed with Completion:

 - (i) must procure the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from each of the Guarantees as soon as possible; and
 - (ii) inform each Vendor and its Associates from and against any Claim or Liability arising out of the Guarantees that may be suffered or incurred by that Vendor or any of its Associates.

8.2 Other Guarantees

The Purchaser:

- (a) must, at and with effect from Completion, obtain the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from any other guarantees or security (including any Bank Debt Security) given before Completion by that Vendor or its Associates in relation to the obligations of the Group; and
- (b) if it fails to fulfil its obligations under clause 8.2(b) and notwithstanding that a Subsequent Vendor has elected to proceed with Completion:

 - (i) must procure the unconditional release of the Vendors and their Associates from each of three other guarantees and securities (notcluding any Bank Debt Security), including by repaying or procuring the repayment by the Group of all of the Bank Debt, as soon as possible; and
 - (ii) indemnify each Vendor and its Associates from and against any Claim or Liability arising out of any guarantees or securities referred to in clause 8.2(b) that may be suffered or incurred by that Vendor or any of its Associates.

8.3 Company Loan

Subject to clause 10, the Purchaser will ensure that the Company repays the Loan in accordance with the terms of the Loan Agreement, and will provide the Company with such financial assistance as is necessary for that purpose.

9.4 Benefit held for Associates

The Vendors hold no rights under clauses 9.1 and 9.2 expressed to be for their Associates, as agent of and trustee for their Associates, and their Associates must be treated in this event as parties to this agreement.

10. Vendor Warranties

10.1 Vendor Warranties

- (a) The Vendors warrant and represent to the Purchaser; as an inducement to the Purchaser to enter into this agreement that, subject to the limitations in this agreement and except as expressly stated, each of the Vendor Warranties is true and accurate in all material respects.
- (b) Each Vendor Warranty is given as at the date of this agreement and immediately prior to the Effective Date unless otherwise indicated in Schedule 10j.
- (c) The Vendors acknowledge and agree that:
 - (i) each of the Vendor Warranties is to be treated as a separate warranty and the interpretation of any statement made is not restricted by reference to or inference from any other statement;
 - (ii) with the exception of the Disclosure Material, no other document or communication qualifies any of the Vendor Warranties; and
 - (iii) the Vendor Warranties are not extinguished or altered by any investigation made by or on behalf of the Purchaser into the Company and the Business before the date of this agreement, unless the Claim relates to a matter which is Particular Disclosed in the Disclosure Material or to which clauses 10.8(c)(iv) or 10.8(e)(v) applies.

10.2 Some Vendors' Warranties Limited to Knowledge

Where a Vendor Warranty is qualified by reference to the awareness or knowledge of the Vendors, the Purchaser agrees that the awareness or knowledge of the Vendors is limited to any information that is known by one or more of:

Nir Pharmacy

Hod Plaza

(the Relevant Persons), as at the date of this Agreement and in respect of those Vendor Warranties repeated at the Effective Date (given the facts or circumstances known by the Relevant Persons at that time), after the Relevant Persons have made reasonable and proper inquiries in relation to the matter, including as appropriate having made inquiries of Charles Choi regarding financial matters, Chris O'Neil regarding Noddy and Bromberg Briefs (with regard to distribution matters).

10.3 Gross Up

Subject to clause 10.3(b) if:

- (i) the Vendors are required by law to make any deduction or withholding from any sum paid to the Purchaser by the Vendors in relation to a Claim; or
- (ii) the Purchaser is required by law to make any payment on account of tax or any other matter on or in relation to any amount received or receivable by it in relation to a payment by the Vendors in respect of payment for a Claim,

- (b) Upon the success payment by the Vendors will be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that after the making of such deduction, withholding or payment, the Purchaser receives and retains (free of any liability in respect of such deduction, withholding or payment) a net sum equal to the sum that the Purchaser would have received had no deduction, withholding or payment been required. In determining the existence and amount of an obligation to make any deduction, withholding or payment referred to in clause 10.3(e) (Obligation) the following procedures will be adopted:
- (i) the Purchaser must deduct from any Obligation the amount of any Tax benefit derived by it as a result of the deduction, giving rise to the Claim;
 - (ii) the Purchaser will notify the Vendors of the existence and amount of an Obligation and provide the Vendors with access to each of its Records as the Vendors may reasonably request to make an informed assessment of the existence and amount of the Obligation;
 - (iii) the Vendor may obtain written advice from its accountants or lawyers as to the existence and amount of the Obligation; and
 - (iv) the Purchaser will provide all reasonably necessary assistance to the Vendors and its accountants or lawyers in preparing such advice.
- 10.4 Time limits and other requirements for Claims
- (a) Despite any other provision of this agreement or the Tax Indemnity Deed and to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Purchaser must not and is not entitled to, and must procure that the Company does not and agrees that the Company is not entitled to, make a Claim, and that Vendors are not liable to make any payment for any breach of the Vendor Warranties or any other provision of this agreement or otherwise in connection with this agreement, including in respect of any indemnity (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed), unless the Purchaser notifies the Vendors of the Claim:
 - (i) in the case of a Tax Warranty Claim or under the Contingent Dates, or before the expiration of 2 years after the Contingent Dates, or
 - (ii) in the case of any other Claim, before the expiration of 90 days after the end of the Bar-ent Period,

except to the extent that:

 - (iii) the Claim relates to a matter involving an act of fraud, dishonesty or wilful misconduct on the part of a Vendor, in which case no time limit applies; or
 - (iv) the Claim is not a Tax Warranty Claim or a claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed and relates to a matter involving the Vendor, in so far as the Claim is in respect of a breach of Vendor Warranty 6 or Schedule 5, in which case no time limit applies. - (b) If the Purchaser gives the Vendors notice of a Claim, the notice to the Vendors must give full details of the nature of the Claim (together with copies of all relevant Records), the nature of the breach and an estimate of the amount claimed and details of how it has been calculated, to the extent that those details are available to the Purchaser or a member of the Purchaser Group (including a member of the Group).
 - (c) A Claim by the Purchaser for the Company under the Tax Indemnity Deed will be taken to be waived or withdrawn and will be barred and unenforceable if within 6 months after the Vendors receive that notice, the Claim has not been:
 - (i) admitted or satisfied by the Vendors;

- (i) Irrevocably withdraw by the Purchaser or Company (as the case may be);
- (ii) settled between the Vendor and the Purchaser or Company (as the case may be);
- or
- (iv) referred to a court of competent jurisdiction by the Purchaser or Company (as the case may be) properly issuing and validly serving legal proceedings against the Vendors in relation to the Claims.

10.5 Small Claims

- (a) The Vendors are not liable to make any payment in respect of a Resolved Claim (whether by way of damages or otherwise) for any breach of the Vendor Warranties or any provision of this agreement or otherwise in connection with this agreement, including in respect of any indemnity (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed) unless:
 - (i) the Resolved Claim relates to a Tax Warranty or is made under the Tax Indemnity Deed, the amount of that Resolved Claim, or series of Resolved Claims that have arisen from a Tax Warranty, Claim or Claims under the Tax Indemnity Deed, is more than $$10$;
 - (ii) if that Resolved Claim does not relate to a Tax Warranty and is not made under the Tax Indemnity Deed, the amount of that Resolved Claim, or series of Resolved Claims that have arisen other than from a Tax Warranty, Claim or Claims under the Tax Indemnity Deed, is more than $$10$.

The parties acknowledge and agree that, subject to the time limitations and other restriction in this clause 10:

- (i) the Purchaser, and the Company (in respect of a Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed), are entitled to segregate individual Resolved Claims of more than $$10$ (the "Small Claims") referred to in clauses 10.5(a);
- (ii) the Purchaser, and the Company (in respect of a Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed), are not entitled to make a Claim for any breach of the Vendor Warranties or any provision of this agreement or otherwise in connection with this agreement, including in respect of any indemnity (including by the Company under the Tax Indemnity Deed) unless and until a Resolved Claim exceeds, or the total of all Individual Resolved Claims that are segregated under clause 10.5(b)(i) exceed, the monetary thresholds referred to in clause 10.5(a); and
- (iii) if the Purchaser, or the Company (under the Tax Indemnity Deed), makes 2 Resolved Claims which exceed, or exceed the aggregate amount of which exceed, the monetary thresholds referred to in clause 10.5(a), the Purchaser or the Company (as the case may be) is entitled to receive 10% of the amount of the Resolved Claim or aggregate Resolved Claims, as the case may be, not merely the amount in excess of the monetary thresholds referred to in clause 10.5(a).

10.6 Maximum amount the Purchaser may recover

The total liability of the Vendors and the maximum amount the Purchaser and the Company under the Tax Indemnity Deed may, in aggregate, recover from the Vendors for breach of any provision of this agreement or otherwise in connection with this agreement, including in respect of any indemnity (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed) will not exceed the value of the Consideration (excluding the Chartered Shares). For the avoidance of doubt, the obligations of the Purchaser under paragraph 9.3 are not subject to this clause (that will not be affected by any Change in Control).

10.7 Purchaser Acknowledgments

- (a) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:
- (i) it has received independent and professional advice (including legal, accounting, tax and financial advice) concerning this Agreement and has satisfied itself about anything arising from that advice;
 - (ii) it has had the opportunity to conduct due diligence and has satisfied itself of the results of that due diligence; and
 - (iii) the only representations and warranties on which the Purchaser has relied in entering into this Agreement are:

- (A) the representations and warranties set out in Schedule 10; and

(B) the matters described in the Disclosure Materials.

- (b) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent permitted by law, all other warranties, representations and undertakings (whether express or implied and whether oral or in writing) made or given by the Vendors, the Group or their respective directors, employees, agents, advisers or representatives are expressly excluded and, to the extent that they cannot be excluded, the Vendors disclaim all Liability in relation to them.

10.8 Limits on Claims and Liability

- (a) The Purchaser must not make a Claim and must procure that the Company does not make a Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed, and the Vendor is not liable to make any payment (whether by way of damages or under an indemnity or otherwise) for any Claim or Liability (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed), to the extent that:
- (i) the vendor, information or circumstance giving rise to, or the subject of, the breach or Claim is fairly disclosed in this Agreement or is untrue in the Purchaser's or before the date of this Agreement by way of the Disclosure Material other than by way of the Disclosure Letter;
 - (ii) the matter, information or circumstance giving rise to, or the subject of, the Claim is fairly disclosed in the Disclosure Letter;
 - (iii) the matter, information or circumstance giving rise to, or the subject of, the Claim or Liability has been provided for or reserved in the Accounts or the management accounts provided under clause 5.2(b);
 - (iv) at the date of this Agreement, the matter, information or circumstance is disclosed in Publicity Available Information;
 - (v) the Claim or Liability is caused by a failing any member of the Purchasing Group (including any member of the Group) does or does not do so or after Completion;
 - (vi) the Claim or Liability would not have arisen but for any restriction or change in ownership of any member of the Purchasing Group after Completion or any change in the accounting policies of the Purchasing Group after Completion;
 - (vii) the Claim is caused by a thing the Vendors or the Group do or do not do:

- (A) at the Purchaser's express request;
- (B) with the Purchaser's express consent; or
- (C) as required by this Agreement;

including anything that the Group does or does not do from the Effective Date under clauses 7.7;

- (vii) the breach or Claim (as herein recorded without cost to the Purchaser);
 - (ix) the Purchaser or the Group is compensated for the Claim or Liability giving rise to, or the subject of, the Claim, whether by the Vendor or otherwise, subject to such compensation covering the reasonable costs incurred by the Purchaser or the Group in connection with pursuing the Claim, or defending an otherwise dealing with the Liability (including reasonable legal costs on a full indemnity basis); or
 - (x) the Claim or Liability giving rise to, or the subject of, the Claim, is recoverable by the Purchaser or the Group through insurance (not of any associated reasonable costs incurred by the Purchaser or the Group in connection with recovering through Insurance (including reasonable legal costs on a full indemnity basis));
 - (xi) the Claim is in respect of a matter or circumstance of which the Purchaser or any of its directors, officers, employees or advisers who were already involved in evaluating the Purchaser on the transactions the subject of this agreement is actually aware.
- (b) The maximum amount which the Vendors are required to pay in respect of any Resolved Claim under or in relation to this Agreement including in respect of any indemnity (including under the Tax Indemnity Deed) is reduced by any tax benefit which the Purchaser (or, if applicable, the Group) has received or may receive in connection with this subject matter of the Resolved Claim.
- (c) Each disclosure in the Disclosure Letter is made in respect of each Vendor Warranty even if the disclosure expressly relates to a particular Vendor Warranty.
- (d) The Vendors are not liable to make any payment for breach of any provision of this Agreement (whether by way of damages or under an indemnity or otherwise) or otherwise in connection with this Agreement including in respect of any indemnity (including the Tax Indemnity Deed) for any indirect loss, or consequential loss, however arising.

10.9 Contingent Claims

As soon as practicable, and in any event within 15 Business Days after the Purchaser becomes aware of a contingent Liability that the Purchaser reasonably considers may give rise to a Claim under or otherwise in connection with this Agreement including in respect of any indemnity (including the Tax Indemnity Deed), the Purchaser must notify the Vendor giving reasonable details as:

- (i) the nature of the contingent Liability (including with copies of all relevant Reports) to the extent that those details are available to the Purchaser; and
- (ii) an estimate of the amount that may be claimed if the Liability becomes actual.

10.10 Notice of potential Claim

- (a) As soon as practicable, and in any event within 15 Business Days, after a party first becomes aware of anything which is or may reasonably likely to give rise to a Claim subject to this clause 10:
 - (i) it must notify the other parties in writing of that fact, together with all available details; and
 - (ii) the Vendor must, as and when requested by the Purchaser, provide to the Purchaser any information and details which the Purchaser reasonably requires.

10.12 Claims that Impact on EBT

To the extent that there is a breach of Vendor Warranty, and as a consequence of that breach of Vendor Warranty, Revenue is less than would have been the case if the breach had not occurred, then this Purchaser must not sue a claim against the Vendors for breach of Vendor Warranty and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that any liability arising from the breach has been taken into account or due to the reduction in Revenue used for the purpose of determining EBT.

10.13 Cash Payment of Claim

- (a) The Vendors may elect to make a Claim Payment under this clause 10 (including in relation to a Resolved Claim under the Tax Indemnity Document) by bank cheque, telegraphic transfer to an account or amounts nominated by the Purchaser or otherwise in cleared funds, in which case the procedure in clauses 10.1 will not apply.
- (b) If this Vendors elects to make a Claim Payment in accordance with paragraph 10.13(e):
 - (i) they must give notice to the Purchaser in writing within 10 Business Days after the date the Claim became a Resolved Claim Notice;
 - (ii) that they wish to make the resultant Claim Payment in accordance with clause 10.13(g); and
 - (iii) the manner (whether by bank cheque, telegraphic transfer or otherwise in cleared funds) in which they propose to make the resultant Claim Payment; and
 - (iv) such election must be in respect of the full amount of the resultant Claim Payment.
- (c) Following receipt of a notice from the Vendors given in accordance with sub-paragraph (10.13(b)), the Purchaser must notify the Vendors of the details of the account or accounts to which the resultant Claim Payment must be made, by not less than 2 Business Days before the due date for payment.
- (d) If the Vendors give this Purchaser a notice pursuant to sub-paragraph 10.13(b)(3) but do not make the resultant Claim Payment by the due date for payment, the Purchaser may, disregard the notice and apply the procedure set out in clause 10.11 to recover the outstanding amount of the Claim Payment and the Purchaser acknowledges that is doing so it will be in full and final satisfaction of the Claim Payment (subject otherwise to this agreement).
- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, a notice given by the Vendors pursuant to sub-paragraph 10.13(b)(5) will be binding on the Vendors jointly and severally.

10.14 Guaranteed Shares

Any payment to be made to the Purchaser or a member of the Fairtrade Group under this clause 10, including in relation to a Reserved Claim under the Tax Indemnity Deed, shall not reduce the number of shares that the Vendor is entitled to receive pursuant to this agreement (so a number less than the number of Guaranteed Shares).

10.15 Survival

The provisions of this clause 10 remain in full force and effect after Completion.

10.16 Claim

For the purposes of this clause 10, a Claim includes a claim for breach of any provision of this Agreement or otherwise in connection with this agreement (including in respect of any indemnity (including the Tax Indemnity Deed)).

11. Purchaser Warranties

- (a) The Purchaser warrants and represents to the Vendor, as an inducement to the Vendor to enter into this agreement that, subject to the limitations in this agreement and except as expressly stated, that each of the Purchaser's Warranties is true and accurate in all material respects.
- (b) Each Purchaser Warranty is given as at the date of this agreement and immediately prior to Completion (unless otherwise indicated in Schedule 11).
 - (c) Each of the Purchaser Warranties is to be treated as a separate warranty and the interpretation of any statement made is not restricted by reference to or inference from any other statement.
 - (d) The Vendor must not make a Claim, and the Purchaser is not liable to make any payment (whether by way of damages or under an indemnity or otherwise) for any Claim or Liability, to the extent that:
 - (i) the vendor, information or documents giving rise to, or the subject of, the breach, or Claim, is Party D's error in this agreement or in writing to the Underwriter on or before the date of this agreement; or
 - (ii) at the date of this agreement, this matter, information or circumstance is disclosed in Publicly Available Information.

12. General Indemnity

The Vendor indemnifies the Purchaser:

- (e) from all Liabilities (excluding indirect or consequential loss) which the Purchaser actually suffers or incurs by reason of:
 - (f) any of the Vendor Warranties being untrue, inaccurate or breached in any material respect;
 - (g) any failure by a Vendor to fulfil its material obligations under this agreement in any material respect; and
 - (h) any breach of a material warranty given with respect to a third party, where that breach occurred prior to Completion.

15.2 Prohibited activities

Subject to clause 15.6, each Vendor undertakes to the Purchaser that the Prohibited Persons will not:

- (a) engage in a business or no activity that is:
 - (i) the same or similar to the Business or any material part of the Business; and
 - (ii) in competition with the Business or any material part of the Business;
- (b) sell, carry, approach or assist an approach from a person who was at any time during the 12 months ending on the Completion Date a customer of the Company with a view to obtaining their custom in a business that is the same or similar to the Business and is in competition with the Business;
- (c) interfere with the relationship between the Company and its customers, employees or suppliers; or
- (d) induce or help to induce an employee of the Company to leave their employment.

15.3 Duration of prohibition

The undertakings in clause 15.2 begin on the Completion Date and end:

- (a) on the second anniversary of the Completion Date;
- (b) on the first anniversary of the Completion Date; and
- (c) six months after the Completion Date.

15.4 Geographic application of prohibition

The undertakings in clause 15.2 apply only if the activity prohibited by clauses 15.2 occurs within:

- (a) Australia and New Zealand;
- (b) Hong Kong;
- (c) China;
- (d) United States;
- (e) United Kingdom;
- (f) European Union; and
- (g) Canada.

15.5 Interpretation

Clauses 15.2, 15.3 and 15.4 have effect together as if they consisted of separate provisions, each being severable from the other. Each separate provision results from combining each understanding in clause 15.2, with each period in clauses 15.3 and combining each of those combinations with each area in clause 15.4. If any of these separate provisions is invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity or unenforceability does not affect the validity or enforceability of any of the other separate provisions or other combinations of the separate provision of clauses 15.2, 15.3 and 15.4.

15.6 Exceptions

This clause 15 does not restrict a Prohibited Person from:

- (a) performing any employment agreement with the Group; or
- (b) holding 5% or less of the shares of a listed company other than the Purchaser;

- (e) recruiting a person through a recruitment agency (except if the agency targets employees of the Company) or in a response to a newspaper, web page or other public recruitment advertisement;

16.7 Acknowledgments

Each Vendor acknowledges that:

- (a) all due prohibitions and restrictions in this clause 15 are reasonable in the circumstances and necessary to protect the goodwill of the Business;
- (b) damages are not an adequate remedy if a Prohibited Person breaches this clause 15; and
- (c) the Purchaser may apply for injunctive relief if:
 - (i) a Prohibited Person breaches or threatens to breach this clause 15; or
 - (ii) it believes a Prohibited Person is likely to breach this clause 15.

16. Confidentiality and publicity

16.1 Confidentiality

- (a) The parties agree to keep the terms of this agreement confidential on the basis that it constitutes 'Confidential Information' for the purposes of the Confidentiality Agreement, except that the Purchaser may disclose such information regarding this Agreement as is necessary for the purpose of obtaining any approvals from members of the Purchaser in general meeting, marketing substantiation for or engaging in discussions with ASX, ASIC or any other regulator, or otherwise to the extent necessary to enable the Purchaser to complete the transaction contemplated by this agreement.
- (b) From Completion the Purchaser is released from clauses 4, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12.2 and 15 of the Confidentiality Agreement, but not its terms of this agreement.

16.2 Confidential Information - [after Completion]

From Completion, subject to Fild Form, or an Associate of Fild Form, being an employee of the Purchaser, each Vendor will remain bound by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement (except that the Purchaser agrees that clause 1.1(3)(b) of the Confidentiality Agreement is deleted) and in any case, must not, and must ensure that any related body corporate of it and its and their respective officers and employees must not, after Completion, without the prior written consent of the Purchaser, use or disclose any Confidential Information unless required to do so by law or the Listing Rules of ASX.

16.3 This agreement paramount

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, both before and after Completion, its obligations set out in the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue to apply to the parties but subject to an express term in this agreement, is inconsistent with a term of this Confidentiality Agreement, this express term of this agreement shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

17. Termination

17.1 Default

If the Vendor or the Purchaser (Defaulting Party) breaches any provision of this Agreement and fails to rectify the breach within 14 days of being given written notice of do so, or becomes subject to an Insolvency Event, the non-defaulting party (Non-Defaulting Party) may at any time prior to Completion (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies under this Agreement or at law) immediately terminate this Agreement by giving notice in writing to the Defaulting Party.

17.2 After termination

On termination of this Agreement for any reason, each party must stop, and must cause its permitted disclosures to stop, using confidential information of another party (including any Records or copies of Records) and, at the other party's option:

- (a) return to the other party;
- (b) destroy and certify in writing to the other party the destruction of;
- (c) destroy and permit a representative of the other party to witness the destruction of all confidential information in its possession or control.

17.3 Survival

Clause 17 continues to apply after termination of this Agreement.

17.4 Accrued rights

Termination of this Agreement does not affect any accrued rights or remedies of a party.

18. GST

18.1 Interpretation

In this clause 18, a word or expression defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) has the meaning given to it in that Act.

18.2 GST grosses up

If a party makes a supply under or in connection with this Agreement in respect of which GST is payable, the consideration for the supply (not for the application of this clause 18.2 (GST exclusive consideration)) is increased by an amount equal to the GST exclusive consideration multiplied by the rate of GST prevailing at the time the supply is made.

18.3 Reimbursements

If a party makes reimbursement to another party for a loss, cost or expense, the amount to be reimbursed or reimbursed is first reduced by any input tax credit the other party is entitled to for the loss, cost or expense, and then increased in accordance with clause 18.2.

18.4 Tax invoice

A party need not make a payment for a taxable supply made under or in connection with this Agreement until it receives a tax invoice for the supply to which the payment relates.

19. Notices and other communications

19.1 Service of notices

A notice, demand, consent, approval or communication under this agreement (Notice) must be:

- (a) in writing, in English and signed by a person duly authorised by the sender, and
- (b) hand delivered or sent by prepaid post or facsimile to the recipient's address for Notices specified in the Details, as varied by any Notice given by the recipient to the sender.

19.2 Effective on receipt

A Notice given in accordance with clause 19.1 takes effect when taken to be received (or at a later time specified in it), and is taken to be received:

- (a) if hand delivered, on delivery;
- (b) if sent by prepaid post, two Business Days after the date of posting (or seven Business Days after the date of posting if posted to or from a place outside Hong Kong);
- (c) if sent by facsimile, when the sender's facsimile system generates a message confirming successful transmission of the entire Notice unless, within eight Business Hours after the transmission, the recipient informs the sender that it has not received the entire Notice, but if the delivery, receipt or transmission is not on a Business Day or is after 5:00pm on a Business Day, the Notice is taken to be received at 9:00am on the next Business Day.

20. Assignment

20.1 Assignment in general

A party may only assign this agreement or a right under this agreement with the prior written consent of each other party.

21. Miscellaneous

21.1 Alterations

This Agreement may be altered only in writing signed by each party.

21.2 Approvals and consents

Except where this agreement expressly states otherwise, a party may, in its discretion, give conditionally or unconditionally or withhold any approval or consent under this agreement.

21.3 Costs

Each party must pay its own costs of negotiating, preparing and executing this agreement.

21.4 Stamp duty

Any stamp duty, duties or other taxes of a similar nature (including fines, penalties and interest) in connection with this agreement or any transaction contemplated by this agreement, must be paid by the Purchaser.

21.5 Survival

- (a) Any liability or any obligation of confidence under this agreement is independent and survives termination of this agreement.

18 MAY 2009

- (b) Any other term by its nature intended to survive termination of this agreement survives termination of this agreement.

- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, clauses 4.2, 6, 3, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 survive Completion of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

21.6 Counterparts

This agreement may be executed in counterparts. All executed counterparts constitute one document.

21.7 No merger.

The rights and obligations of the parties under this agreement do not merge on completion of any transaction contemplated by this agreement.

21.8 Entire agreement

This agreement, read in conjunction with the Underwriting Agreement, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in connection with its subject matter and supersedes all previous agreements or understandings between the parties in connection with its subject matter.

21.9 Further action

Each party must do, at its own expense, everything reasonably necessary (including executing documents) to give full effect to this agreement and any transactions contemplated by it.

21.10 Severability

A term or part of a term of this agreement that is illegal or unenforceable may be severed from this agreement and the remaining terms or parts of the terms of this agreement continue in force.

21.11 Waiver

A party does not waive a right, power or remedy if it fails to exercise or delay in exercising the right, power or remedy. A single or partial exercise of a right, power or remedy does not prevent another or further exercise of that or another right, power or remedy. A waiver of a right, power or remedy must be in writing and signed by the party giving the waiver.

21.12 Relationship

Except where this agreement expressly states otherwise, it does not create a relationship of employment, trust, agency or partnership between the parties.

21.13 Governing law and jurisdiction

This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Victoria, Australia, without regard to the principles of conflict of law of any jurisdiction. Each party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of courts of Victoria, Australia, waives any objections to the jurisdiction of those courts and irrevocably agrees that a judgment or order of a court of Victoria in connection with this agreement is conclusive and binding on it and may be enforced against it in the courts of any other jurisdiction.
