2012 RESULTS HIGHLIGHTS

RETURN TO PROFITABILITY

- ✓ Revenue base stabilised following portfolio rationalisation
- ✓ NPAT up 127% to $10.4m
- ✓ EBITDA up 169% to $20.2m
- ✓ Operating costs down 19%

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

- ✓ Capital raising delivered $23.6m
- ✓ Net debt reduced by 26% ($20.4m) to $58.5m
- ✓ Inventories reduced by 27% ($6.1m) to $16.1m

PRODUCT STRATEGY

- ✓ Acquisition of Pillow Pets brand
- ✓ Acquisition of Lego licenses

RECAPITALSATION

- The Company undertook a successful capital raising in June 2012
- This was comprised of a placement to institutional investors and a retail entitlement offer
- The capital raising delivered $23.6m (net of fees)
- The Company applied $20m of the proceeds against debt, a 26% reduction
- In addition to the capital management benefits, the capital raising also helped to deliver increased liquidity in the register with a number of leading institutional investors now holding Funtastic shares

DIVIDEND POLICY

One of the principle objectives of the capital raising was to enable the reintroduction of dividends.

The Company has secured the consent of its bank, NAB, to commence dividend payments during 2013, providing certain financial hurdles are met.

The Board anticipate that an interim dividend will be announced following the first half results in March 2013.

CEY PRIORITION 2013 & BEYON

STRONG FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE IN TOUGH ENVIRONMENT

- ✓ 2013 EBITDA guidance of $23-$25m
- ✓ Revenue growth driven by strong product pipeline and international expansion
- ✓ Growth is not dependent on retail recovery

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT & DIVIDENDS

- ✓ Further debt reduction in 2013 of $10m
- ✓ Dividends to recommence during 2012/13

STRATEGIC GROWTH LEVERS

- ✓ International expansion through new and existing markets with Pillow Pets and Lego licensed products
- ✓ Domestic launch of 6 new toy brands and 2 new confectionary suppliers
- ✓ Strongest product pipeline in several years
- ✓ Madman investment in digitalisation to penetrate multiple channels and consumer touch points

FUNIASTIC BRANDS

- Pillow Pets continues to be an industry phenomenon in Australia with 2 million units sold launch to date
- Brand longevity bolstered by license partner launches, e.g. Warner Bros and Disney, together with new category introductions such as Pillow Pets™ Dream Lites, already an 8 million unit sub-brand in US
- International distribution continues to deliver significant growth, however whilst Pillow Pets is the Plush brand leader in a number of markets, the overall toy category is hampered by the depressed European economic climate
- Sustainability of revenue to be delivered by ongoing product innovation and new territory expansion outside of core markets, e.g. Latin America, Asia and Eastern Europe

FUNTASTI SEE BRANDS

 Stationery is emerging as a significant growth category in all launched territories: Australia, US, UK and Asia delivering strong BTS and everyday business

 Working with retail partners to execute strong LEGO licensed destinations in store, extending LEGO brand reach beyond the toy aisle

Key focus on continued product innovation, complementing the classic line with new LEGO IP introductions e.g. LEGO Friends
