Balance Sheet:

- Inventory build during FY13 due to weaker retailer demand in Q4
- Correction of inventory levels in FY14 a key priority
- Increase in intangibles reflects Chill Factor acquisition
- Increase in other assets driven by movement in FV of hedging arrangements and prepaid royalties
- Net new debt of $2.7m to fund early exit of Lego earnout
- $10m reduction in overall net debt

Cash Flow:

- Minimal tax payments due to utilisation of losses
- Falling interest costs in line with debt reduction
- Payment for businesses predominantly reflects early exit of Lego earnout
- Issue of shares due to capital raising ($14.4m) and DRP ($3.2m)
- Interim dividend of 0.5 cents per share subject to fully underwritten DRP
- Reduction in borrowings is net of new debt of $5m to fund early exit of Lego earnout

KEY COMMENTS

- Funtastic Brands has become the growth engine of the Funtastic Group with FY13 growth of 73%. When the sale of our own brands product in Fun Australia is included, the FY13 growth was 36%
- Improving scale unlocks the profit over time
- Pillow Pets delivered very strong global sales, slightly impacted by counterfeit and imitation products, and in particular within the Euro 5
- Stationery performance also very solid, limited slightly by time taken to gain traction in key US market
- Chill Factor's initial performance very encouraging with a considerable product pipeline

INNOVATION

CHILL FACTOR
Launch of Slushy Maker in August 2013 with in excess of 42,000 units sold after four weeks to date and growing. Continued product innovation with the launch of the Ice Cream maker in December 2013.

POWER RANGERS
Sees it's 20th year with a Megaforce range that interacts with a smart device application and introduces a trading card concept not seen in this role play before.

FLUTTER BYE FAIRY
Launching this September, Flutterbye Fairy uses the same technology as the popular Air Hogs Vectron Wave to hover mid air. It has made the Top Toys lists for Christmas 2013 in both Walmart and Toys R Us in the US.

AIR HOGS
The #1 RC vehicle property launches Hover Assault Eject this October. Being the next iteration of the pre-Christmas sell out - Hover Assault, this item will be key this Christmas.

RAZOR
From the brand that redefined the outdoor category in Australia through the revolutionary Ripstik, Razor presents The Ultimate Drifting Machine, Crazy Cart. A viral sensation in the US with over 800,000 views of a demo video in 6 weeks on the Toys R US USA website, this product has already won the Toys R Us Australia outdoor product of the year before even seeing a sample.

LEAPFROG
With the world's first launch of the market leading reading and writing device in LeapReader occurring in Australia in June, followed by the introduction of revolutionary LeapPad Ultra learning tablet in October; Leapfrog is continuing to lead the market in educational learning. Social media community launched in June 2013 and continues to grow, with 8,500+ facebook fans. This, on top of the 500,000 plus registered Learning Path users, sees Leapfrog as the educational Pre School brand of choice in Australia. This will be crowned via the LeapPad Ultra, the ultimate kids learning tablet to launch October 2013.

PILLOW PETS
The #1 plush brand in Australia and the #1 SKU in value in the Australian market (according to NPD) goes from strength to strength. Continual brand growth with Dream Lites development and the new Glow Friends launching in November 2013 will see this year as the biggest on record.

CPK
Celebrating it's 30th Anniversary this year, Over 1.25 million Cabbage Patch Kids have been sold worldwide to date. CPK promises to be a key item this Christmas, voted in Toy's R Us's top 5 toys for the past 20 years.

VALUE

Zombie Zity, Predasaurs, Filly & Kawaii Crush: Highly collectible lines that embody popular themes at affordable price points. Strong initial sell through, with range expansions and TV plans in the coming months, these lines are leading the way as Funtastic enter alternate channels of growth.

KEY COMMENTS

- Higher profits despite challenging overall retail environment
- Revenue reduction higher than expected driven by much lower replenishment in December/July particularly from mass merchants
- Rationalisation of brand portfolio drove improved margins, especially from owned brands
- Inventory higher due to the lower July replenishment

MADMAN ENTERTAINMENT

Madman is Australia's leading independent entertainment sales, distribution and rights management company. Still led by founders and directors Tim Anderson and Paul Wiegard, Madman is wholly owned by Funtastic Ltd.

Madman is unique in the marketplace with an integrated business structure established on four key commercial pillars: Theatrical Distribution, Physical Media (DVD & Blu Ray), Digital and Ancillary sales. Madman has an integrated operational capacity across the product lifecycle.

With an expansive sales network throughout Australia and NZ, a specialist in-house creative team, marketing and publicity capability, a licensing & acquisition team, supported by a leading production & technical division, Madman is well positioned to deliver to market the best in niche, collectable and special interest genres, as well as premium mass-market offerings.

Madman has an active content library of over 3000 titles spanning genres as diverse as anime (Japanese animation) independent and Australian film, documentary, kids and TV.

THEATRICAL

From script to premiere, Madman's speciality theatrical distribution team works closely with exhibitors, content producers & licensing partners to distribute quality film content into cinemas throughout Australia & New Zealand by developing creative marketing campaigns that engage Australian audiences and deliver box office success.

DIGITAL

Madman is renowned for its adaptability and the ability to grow new markets. Working closely with local & global partners including iTunes, Sony, Foxtel and YouTube, Madman content can be viewed on all key digital platforms as both a download to rent and download to own proposition. Madman is responsible for technical delivery, sales and marketing in this space and is also able to work with external producers and third parties to technically optimise content for viewing via digital platforms.

PHYSICAL MEDIA (DVD & BLU RAY)

Operating across four key categories; Anime (Japanese Animation) Kids, TV and Film, the Madman team is responsible for the end to end delivery of goods into market. This includes content acquisition, technical production, marketing and sales. A genuine focus on retaining quality and creativity in its product offering combined with a fan-first approach to product development ensures Madman retains its status as a leading supplier of physical media into the Australian marketplace.

ANCILLARY SALES

Free to air and subscription television, airlines, hotels - wherever consumers can view entertainment, you'll find Madman content. Our ancillary sales division maximises the potential of acquired content through deals with a diverse network of commercial ancillary partners.
