FY17 RESULTS

	FY17	FY16
Revenue	$55.7M	$88.9M
EBITDA (Pre Impairment)	($5.6M)	($5.3M)
Goodwill/Intangible Write-down	($17.1m)	($6.4m)
NPAT (Post Impairment)	($33.5M)	($23.9M)

FY17 SUMMARY

Poor FY17 result due to :

1. Decline in revenue due to loss of agency brands and reduced international sales
2. Reduction in fixed costs lagging revenue decline
3. Write-down of goodwill

IMPLEMENTATION OF KEY INITIATIVES

During FY17

- Board Strategic Review.
- Leadership change.
- Reduction in Fixed Costs:
 - Reduced head count
 - Lower occupancy costs
 - Contracted new variable warehousing contract effective 1st January 2018
- Secured new agency business for FY18:
 - Jo Jo Bows
 - Twister Tracks
 - Super Brain Putty
- Commenced Bank and Capital Raise Discussions.

During FY18

- Debt Level Reduction of circa $35.3m.
- Successful Capital Raise of $8.2m completed.
- Sale of a part of the International Business for $2.1m:
 - Reduction in non profitable assets
 - Reduction in fixed costs of circa $3.5m per annum
 - Maintained Key brands of Pillow Pets and Chill Factor
- Renewal of Distribution Contract with Razor.

EARNING GUIDANCE

- At the time of capital raising FY18 EBITDA guidance was a range of $2.1m and $3.5m.
- EBITDA for H1 is expected to be circa $2.5m (PY +$0.9m).
- As a result of H1 improved performance, our revised guidance for FY18 EBITDA is upgraded to be a range of $3m and $3.5m.
- Due to the debt restructure occurring at the start of FY18, a $35m profit will positively impact the H1 and FY NPAT.
- Our stronger guidance has been driven by :
 - Current success with a number of new products
 - Improved Gross Margins due to sales mix
 - Strict focus on our product portfolios increases focus on growth, reduces risk and maximises opportunities

WHERE TO FROM HERE ?

2018 – 2020

CEO - Steven Leighton

STRATEGIC REVIEW

In July 2017, I presented to the Board the results and recommendations of a strategic review undertaken during May and June 2017.

The findings supported the Boards initiatives in :

- a) Right sizing the debt
- b) Right sizing the cost structure
- c) Improving brand profitability

Further more it identified

- a) The transactional revenue base and reliance of it.
- b) A need for prioritisation and focus on core categories.
- c) The lack of marketing and brand investment in its own brands.
- d) Poor International results and quantification of the size of the opportunity.
- e) The need to embrace e-commerce, social marketing and new channels of distribution.
- f) The need to build business acumen across the entire organisation

MISSION CRITICAL

And from those findings the Board and management agreed that we needed to execute against 7 key non- negotiables !

1. Bank refinancing (Debt reduction $35.3m)
2. Capital raising $8m
3. Renewing of the Razor agreement
4. Re-engagement with major factories and suppliers
5. International Sale of $2.1m and exit cost base of $3.5m
6. Complete management restructure and cost initiatives post part International sale
7. Deliver a solid 1st half trading result

STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

Today we have 10 key strategic initiatives that will drive and improve sustainable revenue and profitability, they are:

1. Grow and build our own brands.
2. Grow our international footprint and performance.
3. Develop long term supply partnerships and reduce the dependence of transactional opportunities.
4. Focus and grow key categories with New Product Development disciplines
5. Capitalise on Emerging Technologies.
6. Develop our distribution and customer footprint outside of mass.
Specialty, E-Commerce, Social Marketing.
7. Build commercial acumen and implement disciplined business processes.
8. Cost base – continual review with a variable and reduction focus.
9. Align with Strategic partners and acquire where there is strategic and profitable relevance.
10. Invest in people, culture and leadership

STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

1. Grow & Build our own Brands
