FUNTASTIC AWARDED TOY STORY 4 RIGHTS

Funtastic Limited is delighted to announce it has entered into an Agreement with Thinkway Toys for the distribution of toys and entertainment products that relate to the Disney and Pixar Toy Story 4 license. The much anticipated Toy Story 4 motion picture is scheduled for release in June 2019. The distribution rights granted covers both the Australian and New Zealand markets.

Funtastic's global management experience in marketing and distributing some of the world's largest theatrical franchises (Star Wars, Avatar, How to Train Your Dragon, Ice Age, 007 Bond, Kung Fu Panda) and partnering with major studios, coupled with its prior experience and outstanding performance in managing the distribution rights of the 2010 release of Toy Story 3, were major contributing factors in Funtastic's appointment.

Funtastic CEO, Steven Leighton, commented "The decision by Thinkway to appoint Funtastic to market and merchandise Toy Story 4 is an endorsement that Funtastic has excellent capabilities in this area. The company has worked tirelessly over the past 12 months to dramatically improve its financial performance and this decision is yet another step in Funtastic growing its credibility in the wider toy and licensing market".

Based on the experience of Toy Story 3 in 2010, Funtastic estimates that revenues generated through Toy Story 4 will be in excess of $25m during the 2019 and 2020 financial years, generating incremental EBITDA margins estimated to be between 15% and 20%.

The Company will provide further details and more specific timing over the coming months.
